

NTG RECOGNIZED AS A 2017 TOP WORKPLACE IN ATLANTA

Atlanta, GA - March 27, 2017 - Nolan Transportation Group (NTG) was named a 2017 Top Workplace by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

“This award is a huge honor for NTG since culture is central to the core of our company. Being named a Top Workplace in Atlanta is the highest recognition we can receive because it reinforces our core belief that our people and culture are fundamental to our continued growth and success,” said President Harold Baron.

The AJC and its partner, Workplace Dynamics, surveyed over 60,000 employees from 275 companies in the Metro Atlanta area, an all-time record for the Top Workplaces program.

This award highlights key areas within the company: work environment, training, benefits and career growth.

“We invest in our employees from day one. Our open and team-oriented work environment matches our collaborative, energetic and dynamic culture,” added Baron. Additionally, our pay-for-performance compensation structure allows for promotion and success within NTG without traditional barriers.”

The rankings are based solely on anonymous responses from employees. One such response stated:

“I can see my growth, I have good opportunities here and really enjoy all the people I work with!”
